CHICAGO, TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS.

HAWTHORNE'S OPENING DAY.

Despite the cold damp weather and threatened rain a goodly crowd went to Hawthorne yesterday to welcome the opening of the regular Chicago racing season of 1900.

It would be hard to find a more pleasing spot anywhere in or around the city than is the Cicero course and with all buildings bright with fresh paint and flags flying from every post and corner of the grandstand, the grounds presented a gala appearance.

Taking Monday as a criterion this should be one of the healthiest seasons in racing circles ever seen in Chicago. The Hawthorne folk struck for an open betting ring and won their point. The consequence was that twenty-five regular bookmakers paid their $100 per day and drew in for three days. Besides these were two field books and a combination book.

There was much interest and curiosity centered about the new Hawthorne starter, Jake Holtman. His starting was excellent and on two different occasions when he dispatched fields so closely bunched that it was hard to tell what horse was in front or what was last, the crowd could not restrain their enthusiasm and roundly applauded Mr. Holtman.

In Hawthorne's cozy little judge's stand were Harry Kuhl and Charles Trevathan, both competent, unassuming gentlemen, and the public, at least that portion of them that were there yesterday, seemed to have perfect confidence in them. This fact was clearly demonstrated when the natural favorite, Meddler, bolted at the water jump in the steeplechase. There was a gathering around the stand, as there always is after the race with a questionable result, but not a murmur was heard. It is to be hoped that such will be the case during the entire season.

Among the new bookmakers and one that is always most popular in Chicago and in fact anywhere, was the genial Barney Schreiber. Barney is fresh from St. Louis and reports that the racing is flourishing there. The street car strike handicaps the meeting to a certain extent but with this drawback Barney says the attendance is up to and above the average, and never before was the outlook so bright for a successful season as it is now.

The Flight Stakes for three-year-olds and upward at six furlongs was the stake of the day and despite the muddy condition of the track furnished a cracking good contest. Going to the post it was 3 to 1 to take your pick between Sam Fullen and Hermoso. The race proved to be between this pair and they fought it out from the head of the stretch home, Sam Fullen winning by a neck. Hermoso is speedy, but possesses little or no stamina. He was off in front and considering the condition of the track set a terrific pace, but he never could get out of Sam Fullen's reach and as the latter is a good game colt he was awarded the decision by a neck.

From a spectacular point of view the second race, which was a selling affair at one mile, overshadowed the others in every respect. Starter Holtman was lucky in catching the field all together at the first trial and made a perfect start. Astor went to the front on the first turn, and, closely followed by Prestar, showed the way to the half. Here Prestar took up the running and led to the stretch turn, when there was a general closing up, and when well straightened out for the run home the contest narrowed down to a struggle between Lady Meddlesome, The Elector and Trimmer, and a jolly struggle it was, too, the Lady winning by a nose from The Elector, and he but a neck in front of Trimmer.

The first race fell to Ed Gartland II. in a close finish with Boney Boy. He won the purse by virtue of a head. As good a horse as Boney Boy is, it seems a pity that he is not in better hands, at least some one should have him that would put a decent rider on his back once in awhile. The steeplechase furnished a lot of excitement in the way of falls and other accidents. Battus, from J. H. Smith's stable but presumably owned by B. J. Johnston, easily won the fifth race.

Love's Labor finished out the day by romping home eight lengths in front of Microscope and Bermuda Prince.

Sofala will arrive at Hawthorne Thursday, and as Miss Bennett is now there it is probable that a meeting between this pair of cracks will take place before long.

Dr. Preston showed a lot of speed for a half mile but hung in the last fifty yards. Dr. Barlow ran a fair race.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Saviour—Louise, by Uncas.
Went to post at 4:56. At post 6 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving.
Queen Louise had the race in hand from the start and was eased a bit at the finish. Bombshell ran a cracking good race. He was outrun in the first part and closed with a grand burst of speed, appearing to be catching Queen Louise, but stopped when he reached her, swerving a bit near the finish. Lime Light did his best. Beautiful ran a much improved race. Others of no account.

Scratched—13104 Margate, 112; 18088 Disturber, 113.

Winner—Br. c, by Macduff—Welcome.
Went to post at 5:35. At post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same.
Pincher was well in motion when the flag fell, was well handled and barely lasted long enough.
He had to be hard ridden at the end to stall off Nansen. The latter got off poorly and made up his lost ground, but had nothing left when it came down to a drive. Scales will do to watch as he was outrun in the first part of the race and was gaining ground at every stride at the finish.
Scratched—17644 Alsike, 113.

Pincher, place, 10 to 1; show, 5 to 1. Nansen, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Scales, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—Blk. g. by Albert—Piazza.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second and third were also driving. Ed Gartland II. ran a smashing good race. He was well ridden. Moody was slow in getting away from the post, but he persevered with the gelding in the early part of the journey and came with a well timed rush through the stretch. He was interfered with a trifle by Emma M. when the latter quit, otherwise he would have won by a greater margin. Miller rode a miserable race on Boney Boy, especially at the finish, when he was more of a handicap than a help to the horse. Miss Shanley broke flying and showed a fine turn of speed. San Mateo ran a fair race considering that he lost a lot of ground by making a wide turn into the stretch. Emma M. stopped almost to a walk in the last sixteenth. Isabinda showed a flash of early speed. Maud Ferguson will do better on a fast track. Ed Gartland II. was jumped on and cut in the race.

Scratched—17948 Flammaro, 109; 17996 Goebel, 107; 17948 St. Cuthbert, 107; 17874 The Lady in Blue, 102; (17971) Minyon, 98.

Winner—B. f. by Meddler—Little Lady II.
Went to post at 2:50. Off at the first break to a perfect start. The first three were close together and driving to the limit. Lady Meddlesome is a game little filly. She was under keen pressure from the head of the stretch home and never for an instant faltered. Devin rode a clever race, using his hands until the last few strides then he went after the filly hot with his whip. The Elector made up a lot of ground in the stretch and showed to be about in his best form. Mark him for early action. Trimmer hung at the end and may have been a trifle short. He saved much ground by skimming the rails at the head of the stretch. When Trimmer tired Miller also seemed to tire. Both Prestar and Astor were used too much in the first part of the race and both tired badly at the end. Rollins did not run his race.

Scratched—17804 Dutch Comedian, 112; 17948 Murat, 112.
Lady Meddlesome, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. The Elector, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Trimmer, show, evens. Rollins, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Time, 3:22:1.

Winner—Br. g. by Little Minch—Gwendoline.
Went to post at 3:20. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won eased up; second whipped out; third eased also. Globe II. had clear sailing, was well ridden and won a lucky race. He is a clean fencer and never made a mistake in the entire journey. Monita fenced well and had no excuses. After Meddler went wrong and Chenier and Becky Rolfe fell, the race, as a contest, was a fizzle. Meddler was going well in hand when he came to the water jump for the first time, but the old rogue bolted outside the flag and Johnson was obliged to pull up and go back to where the horse made the mistake. This, of course, ruined whatever chance he had of winning. Johnson was scored on all sides for allowing Meddler to bolt. The boy did the best he could, however, and was not to blame. Chenier seemed to be going easily when he fell. Both he and Becky Rolfe got ugly looking falls, but fortunately no damage resulted.

Globe II., place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Monita, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Zufallig, show, evens. Meddler, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Chenier, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Cavalier—Lena Oliver.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving to the limit; second and third were driving also. Sam Fullen ran a fine race and is a crackerjack in the mud. He had to be to beat Hermoso under the conditions that he did. The latter is a horse of phenomenal speed and loves the mud. He was at his very best in this race, and after getting away well on his stride set a terrific pace. He is a coward at the best, and in the last fifty yards tied badly. Tuthill, off the inside in the worst going all the way, made a good showing. Knight rode a poor race on Hard Knot, being slow at the post and making up altogether too much ground from the half mile post to the quarter post. Andes, off badly, ran a good race. Celeritas was never bothersome. Neither was Ben Ledi nor Emma R.

Scratched—16558 Mint Sauce, 119; (17631) Headwater, 106; 17996 Ailanto, 99; 17996 Goebel, 106.
Overweights—Celeritas, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Pardee—Meadow Lark.
Went to post at 4:35. At post 14 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive; second and third were doing their best. Battus is a good youngster. He can run in any kind of going, has a lot of speed and can go a route. Rio de Altar is a grand looker of the Emperor of Norfolk type, has a phenomenal turn of speed but has a tough mouth, is heavy-headed and a trifle flighty. He ran far out in two different breakaways and this used him up to some extent. Fancywood could never get near the two leaders. The others were beaten off all the way. Corrected weights—Water Alone, 102.

Battus, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Rio de Altar, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Fancy Wood, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Oscar, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Went to post at 5:20. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easing up; second the same. Love's Labor was best and towrope the field. He was interfered with by Microscope on the first turn but not enough to hurt his chances to any great extent. Little Waldo went away from the post whipping on Microscope and kept at him all the way until in the last fifty yards. Bermuda Prince showed early speed but quit after going a half and was probably short. This horse has worked a mile in 1:43 and can be marked when the track dries out. Arthur Behan was beaten off all the way.
